1. Welcome, Introductions, and Meeting Framework

Restoration Subcommittee members will have the opportunity to introduce themselves and provide a brief summary of the restoration work they do in the Delta. Restoration Subcommittee members will also discuss meeting procedures.

2. DPIIC Restoration Subcommittee Background and Purpose

Delta Conservancy Executive Officer Campbell Ingram and Delta Stewardship Council Deputy Executive Officer for Planning Jeff Henderson will present the background of the Restoration Subcommittee, the status of the proposed amendment to Delta Plan Chapter 4 (Protect, Restore, and Enhance the Delta Ecosystem) and its recommendations for the Restoration Subcommittee, and initial work plan ideas.

3. Restoration History and Current Status

Delta Stewardship Council Senior Environmental Scientist Dylan Chapple will present on previous restoration in the Delta and current efforts to catalog existing projects to help identify conceptual and physical gaps in restoration. Tools to help identify these gaps, such as EcoAtlas and the Landscape Planning Restoration Tool, will also be discussed.

4. DPIIC Restoration Subcommittee Vision and Focus

Restoration Subcommittee members will participate in an online brainstorming session to identify priorities and Restoration Subcommittee actions.

Subcommittee Discussion: Which aspects of restoration are most important for the Restoration Subcommittee to focus on? How can we better identify gaps in our knowledge of restoration activities? What additional landscape-level restoration planning is needed, where should we be planning, and what tools can we use to aid in this process?

Subcommittee Action: The Subcommittee will form a working group to draft a unifying vision statement and initial set of goals and activities to be adopted at the March Subcommittee meeting.*

5. Closing Remarks and Committee Business

Restoration Subcommittee members may discuss Restoration Subcommittee business and potential highlights of the next Restoration Subcommittee meeting, tentatively scheduled for early March 2022.
