

SAVE THE DATE!

The Delta Science Program,
The U.C. Davis Center for Aquatic Biology & Aquaculture (CABA) and the California Nevada Chapter of the American Fisheries Society are pleased to announce a seminar and workshop:

Tidal Marshes and Native Fishes in the Delta: Will Restoration Make a Difference?

Monday, June 10, 2013

8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Ballroom B, U.C. Davis Conference Center

Convened by Peter Moyle, Professor in Wildlife, Fish and Conservation Biology at U.C. Davis and Matt Nobriga, Conservation Chair of the California Nevada Chapter of the American Fisheries Society

Guest Speakers include:

Ken Able, Rutgers University; Don Baltz, Louisiana State University;
Si Simenstad, University of Washington

Full list of speakers and agenda available soon.

The seminar is free and open to the public.

CENTER FOR AQUATIC BIOLOGY
& AQUACULTURE

DELTA SCIENCE PROGRAM

DELTA STEWARDSHIP COUNCIL

