

DELTA PLAN

Note: Yolo Bypass restoration area extends north to Fremont Weir.

LEGEND

Urban and Urbanizing Areas	Ecosystem Restoration
Grey square: Cities	Red dashed line: Priority Habitat Restoration Areas
Grey cross-hatch: Sphere of Influence	Flood Management
Orange outline: Contra Costa County Urban Limit Line	Brown line: State Plan of Flood Control (Project) Levees
Red outline: Mountain House General Plan Community Boundary	Blue dashed line: State Plan of Flood Control Bypasses and Floodways
Pink star: Legacy Communities	Purple outline: Other Floodplains to be Protected from Encroachment
Other Land Use	Orange dashed line: Urban, Non-Project Levees
Light green: Agriculture	Blue dashed line: Water Supply Reliability Levee Projects
Dark green: Open Space/Recreation	Red outline: Legal Delta
Light green: Natural Preserve	Purple outline: Suisun Marsh
Grey: Public/Quasi-Public	Grey dashed line: County Boundaries
Water Features	Red line: Highways
Blue line: Rivers, Streams, and Lakes
Blue dashed line: Canals/Aqueducts

¹ Priority Habitat Restoration Areas are large areas within which specific sites may be identified for habitat restoration based on assessments of land use and other issues addressed through further feasibility analysis.

Base Map: CASIL Hillshade
X 10110054.05 260 5/12

0 3 6
MILES

Source: South Delta Levee Protection and Channel Maintenance Authority 2011, Jones & Stokes 2007, CH2M Hill 2012, DWR 2011, AECOM 2012